DEFENDANT: RONALD LEWIS HENDERSON, JR.
CASE NUMBER: 2:19cr214-01-MHT

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. ### SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. The defendant shall be placed on home detention for a period of 12 months, in addition to other conditions that are on file with the court.
2. The defendant shall attend individual trauma-informed therapy at least once per week. The therapy shall teach anger management skills, emotional regulation, communication and coping skills and address his history of being bullied and lack of trust in relationships in accordance with the recommendations of Dr. Carla Stover (see doc. regarding the use of concrete examples and direct teaching of skills. The therapist shall also monitor the defendant's substance abuse carefully and integrate relapse prevention into his individual therapy. The United States Probation Office shall arrange for the defendant's therapy in consultation with defense counsel. The defendant shall contribute to the cost based on his ability to pay and the availability of third-party payments.
3. The defendant shall have no contact with Ms. Latonya Collins, during his term of supervision, if she contacts him, he must report that contact immediately to his probation officer. It is also suggested that the defendant contact his defense attorney immediately if Collins contacts him.
4. The defendant shall receive a psychiatric evaluation to assess whether medication would be beneficial and shall follow the recommendations of the evaluator, assuming financial arrangements can be made to pay for any recommended recommendations. The United States Probation Office shall arrange for the psychiatric evaluation in consultation with defense counsel. The defendant shall contribute to the cost based on his ability to pay and the availability of third-party payments.
5. The defendant shall obtain a vocational and/or occupational assessment to determine whether vocational training and educational services are recommended and what kinds of jobs might be appropriate for him. The United States Probation Office shall make arrangements for the assessment in consultation with defense counsel, and the probation officer and defense counsel shall assure that the results of the evaluation are filed with the court.
6. The defendant shall not use any illegal drugs or consume alcohol and shall have alcohol monitoring.
